

Kerri Dobszewicz,

Senior Learning Consultant,
Allstate Insurance Company of Canada

Kerri is a Senior Learning Consultant for the Allstate Insurance Company of Canada.

Kerri has over 25 years of insurance experience with Allstate. In 2007, Kerri was given the opportunity to join the Corporate Learning Department. In her current role, Kerri is accountable for the design and facilitation of Allstate's Management Curriculum programs.

After being certified to facilitate the program, she introduced IHHP's Performing under Pressure: The Science of Emotional Intelligence to her organization in 2014.

To date, 145 Leaders from across the country have attended the 2 day sessions. Kerri holds a BA (Hons.) from King's College, University of Western Ontario as well as a Chartered Insurance Professional (CIP) designation.

