

INSTITUTE for HEALTH and HUMAN POTENTIAL

Marcie Stern

Over the past 20 years, Marcie has held leadership roles in learning, organizational development, and leadership development in the healthcare and insurance industries – and has experience both working for, and facilitating to, Fortune 100, private equity, and non-profit organizations. She has also been an entrepreneur leading her own professional development consulting company. In Marcie’s “first” career as a hospital administrator, she led business development, strategic planning, and physician relations initiatives.

Throughout her career, Marcie has worked comfortably across all levels of the organization. She has delivered training and keynotes on a variety of business and leadership topics to High Potential Leaders and Executives. She remains most passionate about helping leaders build their emotional intelligence muscle. Incorporating all of her experience, Marcie blends her corporate, coaching, and leadership background to deliver programs that both connect with and engage the learner. She brings a warm and compassionate style, an ability to establish trust, and an action-oriented approach to facilitation. Participants often provide feedback that Marcie makes the session about them, and they walk away feeling motivated and ready to take action.

Marcie studied Health Services Administration, earning both a master’s degree from Arizona State University and a bachelor’s degree from University of Arizona. She acquired the Registered Leadership Coaching certification and is currently a faculty member of the Lake Forest Graduate School of Management. Marcie is proud to add “author” to her bio, having published, So Long Inner Critic, Hello Inner Champion: 25 Tips to Master Your Mindset in 2013. Her three pillars are positive attitude, purposeful actions, and personal accountability.

About Us

IHHP is a research-based training company and has been a leader in Emotional Intelligence for over twenty years. It's a scientific fact that emotions precede thought. When emotions run high, they change the way our brains function, diminishing our cognitive abilities, decision-making powers, and even interpersonal skills.

Is your organization facing increased pressure, disengagement or lack of authentic communication? We build integrated programs with training, assessments and coaching based on neuroscience for real change. We translate the science behind managing emotions and teach people the skills to summon their best selves and do their best work during moments of truth.

Our clients see improved productivity, talent retention, a more agile workplace culture and higher engagement levels.

Whether you are an individual contributor or manage a team, we believe that PEOPLE make the greatest positive impact when they SHOW UP AS THEIR BEST selves.

Connect with a Leadership Consultant to discuss how you can get the most from your team!
